Activity 1

Below are questions from a variety of instruments – some published, some not; some developed by me, some developed by others. How good are they in collecting the information it appears they are requesting?

Please take a minute to answer these questions and let's compare responses. I will not collect your answers but even so, if you do not feel comfortable responding to a question you do not have to answer. Instead we may discuss how you might have come up with your answer.
